

Sponsored By

FOUNDATION for COMMUNITY HEALTH

Prevention, Access, Collaboration

The Health Care Workforce: Trends, Issues, and Resources

Kris Stiegler, MPA

Senior Project Coordinator

Center for Health Workforce Studies at the School of Public Health at SUNY Albany

Thursday, October 15th, 2020 ~ 1:00pm - 2:00pm

This webinar will cover health care workforce issues with a focus on rural health workforce challenges, and will be using primary and secondary data to describe research on workforce trends. We'll be discussing supply and demand of the health care workforce, recruitment and retention, federal shortage area designations, service obligated programs, challenges to the workforce as a result of COVID-19, and highlight other resources for decision makers.

Click here to register in advance for this webinar. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

Kris Stiegler is the Senior Project Coordinator at the Center for Health Workforce Studies at the School of Public Health at SUNY Albany. She is involved in a number of projects at the Center, which includes assisting with primary and secondary data collection, analysis and reporting. Kris has a Masters of Public Administration, and has previously worked at various levels of the public sector, including the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Oregon Health Authority, county government, and non-profit organizations.

